Grand Traverse Veterans Affairs Clinic, an extension of the Traverse City VA Community Based Outpatient Clinic, opens March 7, 2016

An additional VA clinic will open on March 7, 2016, in Traverse City, to specifically provide Mental Health, Physical Therapy, and Home Based Primary Care Services. The clinic is named the Grand Traverse VA Clinic and this will be an extension to the already existing Traverse City VA Community Based Outpatient Clinic.

This additional VA clinic in Traverse City was necessary to allow for needed space due to workload and expanded programs. The Grand Traverse VA Clinic will be a temporary clinic, until such time a new larger Traverse City VA Community Based Outpatient Clinic is opened. The brand new clinic will offer over 22,000 square feet.

Veteran patients who have appointments in Traverse City will receive notice as to which clinic to present. The breakdown of services is as follows:
